

COMMUNICATIONS EXPERIENCE

COMMUNICATIONS SPECIALIST

Emergency Medical Technician a plus

High School Diploma or equivalent

NAACS certificate required within 1 year from date of hire

Intermediate knowledge of MS Office and general computer skills

Excellent written and verbal interpersonal communication skills primary via e-mail and phone

Skilled in multi-line phone systems

Two way radio proficiency

Must be able to respond quickly and prioritize in a rapidly changing environment while maintaining a professional demeanor

Two years' experience in fire, police or medical emergency dispatch preferred

Strong customer service skills

Previous air medical dispatch experience strongly preferred

www.LifeFlight.org/Careers
503.678.4120

JOIN OUR TEAM

Life Flight Network operates a not-for-profit air medical program which sets the industry bar for excellence and safety by perpetually evolving both in the air and on the ground. Being a part of our team means leading a career of compassion, excellence, pride, and meaning. We are dedicated, skillful professionals who thrive in a fast-paced, collaborative environment. Our people are the best and the brightest. Second to none.

Are you inspired?

EXCEPTIONAL BENEFITS PACKAGE

Includes:

- Life Flight Network offers competitive compensation above industry standard
- Medical
- Dental
- Vision
- Life/AD&D
- Short & Long Term Disability
- Flexible Spending Accounts
- 401k – with automatic employer contribution
- Tenure Bonuses
- Adoption Assistance
- Paid Parental Time Off
- Pet Insurance
- Bereavement Leave (including pets)
- Tuition/Training Reimbursement
- Paid Volunteer Time
- Employee Recognition Awards
- Generous PTO plan
- 9 Paid Holidays
- Wellness Reimbursement Program
- Life Flight Network Membership

E-mail: Jobs@LifeFlight.org

HR: 503.678.4120